HAVING ESTABLISHED THE ABOVE MANUFACTORY in Portland, we are now prepared to fill any orders for COFFEE and SPICES, and will prove by a trial that they cannot be excelled in any market. We will offer terms to the trade that will warrant them to patronize a Home Manufactory in preference to sending below for goods in our line, and shall endeavor to prove by our exertions that Oregon need not depend on other sections of the Pacific Coast for anything we manufacture.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 20, 1864.

News of To-Day

We have received Eastern dates as late as the 18th. The most important item of which is the report of a battle in front of Savannah on the 10th, in which Sherman's forces numbering 20,000 men opposed by a large force of the rebels, who were defeated with great loss after a severe fight in which the enemy were driven from their entrenchments and utterly routed, leaving 1,200 prisoners, many colors, cannon, small arms and munitions. The victory was complete, though our troops were too wearied to follow it up, and the enemy retired within the fortifications of Savannah. Our loss was 2,500 men, while the enemy lost still more heavily, principally when being driven from their defenses.

The new army corps, under Hancock, to be entirely recruited from the veterans who have served three years in the war, is attracting considerable attention, and it is thought that veterans from this coast can make a part of it. There is an extra bounty offered, making $600 given by Government, as a special bounty for this corps, with the hope of calling out the best men, who have served hitherto in our armies, to assist in winding up the war.

Particulars are given of the cavalry raid, under Gregg, on the Weldon railroad, near Stony Creek, and it seems to have been a perfect success, accompanied with little loss on our part, and terribly damaging the enemy, and irretrievably injuring his communications with Richmond.

Gen. Miles, below Petersburg, had made a reconnoissance, capturing some rebel works, and holding them—quite a spirited affair. A force—probably under Warren—is said by Richmond papers to be moving towards Weldon, N. C. This is probably the two army corps that left the army of the Potomac some little time since. If Grant can spare an army of 30,000 men to march south, and that force can march through Virginia and North Carolina unmolested by the rebels, the fact is significant of our strength and of the rebel weakness.

The battle near Murfreesboro is told of in full, and proves to have been a brilliant Union victory, and per contra a serious rebel defeat, in which Forrest's boasted cavalry ran a serub race against time, endeavoring to save their bacon.

European Intelligence.

New York, Dec. 11.—The Canada from Liverpool, Nov. 26th, and from Queenstown 27th, has arrived. Lord Lyons has not resigned, but is going home on six months furlough. The Daily News says the South will arm the slaves, and thinks the proposal is a promise of the approaching end of the war and of slavery. It is said the Florida was taken by surprise, with everything on board, and may be found to implicate many foreign officials in sympathy with the rebels.

The Daily News publishes a letter from Professor Goldwin Smith, dated at Boston, complimentary to the recent election. He regards the defeat of the Democrats, as a great escape of trouble between England and America.

Spencer, the well known leader in the House of Commons, is dead.

Gales have been prevailing on the English coast, and there were a number of shipwrecks.

The Italian Chamber of Deputies had adopted a bill reducing the enrolments of the public officials.

The Senate passed the financial bill.

The election returns in Spain show results favorable to the ministry by four to one.

The official Berlin paper regards Lord Napier's appointment to the Court of Berlin as favorable to the future friendly interests of Prussia and England.

Richard Cobden addressed a great meeting at Rochdale, Nov. 23d. He said nothing favorable to non-intervention, in either European or American affairs. Adverting to the war in America, he asked why the South, as in other cases of rebellion, did not put forth its grievances. The reason was, he thought, that they had but one, and that was the perpetuation and extension of slavery. They simply asked to be let alone. This is the cry that has secured so much European sympathy for the insurgents.

He regarded the peaceable Presidential election as one of the most sublime spectacles in the whole history of the world, and said the people who could do that, had given the world an example such as never was presented before by any other people. They had resolved, notwithstanding their great sacrifices, that slavery should be abolished. His belief was that he should not live to see the independence of States on the continent of America.

The Paris Journal construes the result of the Presidential election as evidence that the war is now to be prosecuted with vigor until the South is completely subdued. It says it heralds forth the approaching re-establishment of the Union and the final extirpation of slavery.

The Herald's special London letter says: Preparations are making for the speedy construction of the telegraph to America by the way of Greenland and Ireland.

Paris letter says, the effect here of the South freeing the negroes is to assure the majority of the French people, that Slavery is to end. They will favor recognition. The Emperor desires that the South shall abolish slavery and become an independent power. Southerners in Paris encourage the idea that this will be the final result.

Dalles Items.—We gather the following items from the Mountaineer, of Dec. 19th:

The jury in the case of Krolick alias Charley Jackson, on trial for grand larceny, brought in a verdict of guilty.

We are informed that high winds have prevailed on the upper Columbia river for the past forty-eight hours.

Passengers down from Walla Walla yesterday, report the roads pretty tolerable rough and the weather anything but warm and pleasant in the upper country.

The steamer Spray was reported last evening "windbound" at the mouth of John Day's river.

The new steamer Okyhee, seems to be "out of luck." She and the Spray started for Wallula on Thursday morning last. Somewhere near the mouth of John Day's river the Okyhee met with an accident which compelled her to return to Celilo.

Fighting Joe in Trade.—In the great Union procession at Springfield, Ill., last week, were the two-horse wagons loaded with wood. It was dumped in a pile for distribution to soldiers' families. Gen. Jo Hooker, while riding up from the depot, met the procession, and was rather stunned by the 95 wood wagons. "Why, where can these farmers find a market for this immense quantity of fuel?" asked the hero. "Oh, General, it is a part of our procession. Every stick of that is going to the families of soldiers absent in the army." The tears gathered in Hooker's eyes. Trembling a moment, then ran down his cheeks. "I've been in a hundred battles, while here," he said, "My God! what a people you Illinoisans are! You not only furnish men with which to fight the battles of the Nation, but you take a father's care of their wives and children when they are absent."

A war carried on by such a people is a failure! Copperheads do you still stick to this lie and this slander?—New York Tribune, Nov. [illegible]

DATES TO DECEMBER 11.

GREAT FIGHT NEAR SAVANNAH!

Sherman Victorious!

Victory at Murfreesboro!

New York, 11.—[illegible] special correspondent has an account of a battle in front of Savannah on the 10th, which it says it [illegible] loyal resident of Richmond. He says: [illegible] Sherman's [illegible] Savannah, [illegible] marching between [illegible] tair [illegible]. The left wing was extended so as to cut the Charleston and Savannah R.R. communications had been effected on previous day, with Foster, who was again rapidly advancing on Grahamville. The rebels retreated from their strong position south of Pocotaligo Bridge, evidently alarmed at finding themselves threatened both in front and rear by superior forces. Sherman, who was on the field, found himself confronted by a large force of regulars and militia entrenched.—The battle began early in the day, and was contested with great fury on both sides. The garrison of Savannah numbered 12,000 veterans, who participated. Towards noon, a general charge was made by Union troops, who carried some works on the enemy's left and centre, threatening to cut him off from the city.

This was followed by an immediate advance of the whole line, which [illegible] the rebel force in confusion. They fell back to the immediate vicinity of the works in the rear of Savannah. Our troops pursued to Telfair on the south and a corresponding distance along the upper railroad.

Our troops rested on finding the enemy's works very strong—the men from long marches the previous night and severe fighting, were worn out.

Loss severe on both sides, 2,500 Union troops and between 3,000 and 4,000 rebels were killed or wounded. About 1,200 prisoners, including many officers of rank, together with colors, cannon, small arms, wagons and caissons were captured. G. W. Smith, Hardee and Cobb were in command of the rebels. At first their loss was less than ours, owing to their protection, but at the close of the action they suffered terribly. It is believed that of the rebels, at the head of the inlet, 4,000 or 5,000 will be captured.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—The new First Corps of General Hancock, which is to be composed of soldiers who have served three years and upwards, may possibly give a chance for some of your discharged veterans to get an opportunity to go into the army on this side with transportation from San Francisco to Washington furnished by Government. Should it be determined, as it is now supposed, to take veterans from California, the announcement will soon be made, as this corps is to be placed in the field at the earliest possible moment. The bounty offered by the Government for this corps of veterans is $300 greater than that offered for other corps. The whole Government bounty is as follows: For one year's service, $400, of which $366 are paid down; for three years, $600, of which $400 are paid down; the balance to be paid in instalments during the term of service. Veterans can enlist under these bounties for one, two, or three years, at their option. In view of these veterans being familiar with the use of arms, the Government has determined to arm them with the most improved weapons in its possession, and present each soldier with a pass to take him home, at the expiration of his term of service, as a reward for his services in helping to put down this unholy rebellion. General Hancock, who served in the regular army in your State, for several years, will give the opportunity for many of your discharged veterans to enter service on this side against the rebels.

Washington, 12.—Arrangements are rapidly being made to put the new first corps of General Hancock's into the field at the earliest moment.—Many old and tried officers will be placed in command; their names will be announced in a few days. Steps have been taken which will induce each State to furnish veterans to join this corps.—It is said arrangements are in progress by which State and other bounties may be paid here to a veteran recruit, who may have himself credited to any particular locality he may prefer; for any veteran sent to Washington and accepted in the army, a certificate will be given. It is for the interest of all localities to send as many veterans as possible, as they are not subject to draft, hence to be accepted from their locality. The Government bounties are given to veterans of the 1st Corps, and to no other. Superior inducements are therefore offered to enlist in this corps. The time to put it in the field is short, and localities must be prompt in forwarding them if they take advantage of Government bounty. To do so it is only necessary to take veteran's receipt to the provost marshal, who will forward them free of expense to Washington. Let it be remembered that these veteran soldiers are not subject to draft. Any enlisted are clear gain on the quota under a future draft.

Head-Quarters Army of the Potomac, 11.—It was known that the enemy were procuring large supplies by way of the Weldon railroad to Stony Creek, whence they were wagoned. The cavalry force sent three or four days ago not being able to effectually stop these rebel operations, the 5th Corps, with Gregg's cavalry, and the 3d division of the 2d Corps have been detailed to effectually put a stop to it by destroying the railroad as far as Hicks' Ford, if it was possible to reach that station. On Wednesday at daylight the column started south on the Gorham road, the cavalry advance arrived at a point 12 miles from Petersburg, diverged from the road about one mile to the right when it reached the Nottoway river, and at once commenced crossing. On reaching a point two miles beyond Sussex Court-House, some cavalry were encountered and driven back to where the Weldon R. R. crosses the Nottoway about noon when a small force of the enemy dashed in between our cavalry and the advance of the infantry, but were soon repulsed with slight loss. Our advance then commenced the destruction of the Railroad, by burning the bridges across the Nottoway.—They continued on to Jarrett's Station, and bivouacked there on Thursday night.

On the afternoon of Friday our advance reached a point near Hicks' Ford. The enemy were found to be in some force, having a battery in position and strong works on both sides of the river. An attack was found to be impracticable, on account of the strength of the works, and the difficulties in approaching them, particularly without artillery. It was determined to carry the works on this side and destroy the depot, which was successfully done. It now become dark and commenced raining, snowing and freezing. The troops camped in the vicinity for the night, and in the morning started on their return. A small body of infantry followed, and endeavored to annoy us, but each time they were driven back with loss. This afternoon the Nottoway river was reached, and the entire army crossed safely. To-morrow they will all be back in their old position in front of Petersburg.

New York, Dec. 12.—A dispatch, dated Headquarters, Army of Potomac, Dec. 9, says: Another reconnoissance was made this morning, along the Vaughn road towards Hatcher's Run, by a considerable force under General Miles. The enemy's pickets were driven across the Run, where a sharp fire was opened on our advance, from the breastworks on the opposite side. After some skirmishing, a charge was made, which resulted in the enemy being driven out, and our men took possession of the captured works. Skirmishers went down to protect each flank, and soon after a report was received that the enemy were moving up the road, with the evident intention of attacking us, and Gen. Miles at once disposed his force to meet them; the enemy, however, failed to come in, and it was supposed that they had fallen back to a stronger position at Armstrong's mill, a mile and a-half in the rear.

The Richmond Dispatch, of the 9th, says: The only news received from very far south, yesterday, was that the Federals were renewing their demonstrations against the Savannah and Charleston railroad. They seem to be seeking to divert the attention of our troops from Sherman.

The Petersburg Express says: The expedition of the enemy was reported, yesterday morning, two miles distant south, and still in motion. Its destination is unknown, save probably at headquarters. This column is said to consist of a large force of infantry with plenty of artillery, but only a small force of cavalry.

The Richmond Dispatch of Dec. 9, says: The latest information from the enemy on the Weldon railroad is, that they were still moving towards Weldon, and were provided with a large amount of stores, as if to induce us to believe that they were provided for a long march. It is useless to speculate on their plans, which will be known in a day or two. It is probable the primary object of their movement was to [illegible] or sending reinforcements to our forces operating against Sherman.

The Richmond [illegible] of the 9th, says: Sherman is reported to be [illegible] half way between [illegible] and Savannah.

New York, 11th.—[illegible] from General Rousseau at Murfreesboro, regarding the recent battle [illegible]. The enemy moved south of Murfreesboro to Overall's Creek, and for five miles [illegible] the road was destroyed. [illegible] were abandoned [illegible] surrounded them, but [illegible] their way, and reached Murfreesboro [illegible].

[illegible] block-house at Overall's Creek was attacked by rebel Gen. Bates' division with a battery [illegible] 2 Artillery [illegible] from Murfreesboro under Gen. Milroy—[illegible] force was unknown.

Our troops attacked and routed the enemy. Federal loss, four killed and forty wounded; the enemy's loss unknown. [illegible] to the fort. On Monday, the enemy were reinforced by two brigades of infantry and 2,500 cavalry under Forrest [illegible]. During Tuesday and Wednesday the enemy demonstrated against the fort at Murfreesboro and the town, [illegible] within a mile of the fort yesterday. The enemy's infantry moved out on the Wilkinson pike, about eleven miles north west of the fort, where Negley's command was formed at the battle of Stone River. Seven regiments and a battery were sent out on the Salem pike, who encountered the enemy near the Wilkinson pike, behind breastworks of logs and rails. The rebels were completely routed and driven off [illegible], Forrest's cavalry making [illegible] time in their hurry to escape. Our loss was 30 killed and 175 wounded. The enemy's loss largely exceeded ours. Two hundred and seven prisoners, including eighteen commissioned officers, and two 12-pounders were captured and are now in position in the fort.

Previous to Milroy's attack on the rebels, Buford's division of cavalry attacked Murfreesboro, entered the town, shelled it and destroyed many houses. Rousseau sent one regiment of infantry and a section of artillery, drove the enemy out of the town, and he has not made his appearance since.

General Granger is reported all right at Stevenson.

The weather is cold and no movements are in progress. Persons from the rebel lines report intense suffering.

Last Night's Dispatches.

New York, Dec. 12.—Reuben Fenton, Governor elect of New York, has tendered his resignation as a member of Congress to take effect December 20th. It is thought the Speaker will appoint D. C. Littlejohn to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation on the ways and means committee.

New York, Dec. 12.—A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated the 11th, says: Charleston papers announce that Sherman, on the 5th, was marching in the direction of Savannah. Rebel papers contain the message of Gov. Smith, of Virginia. He recommends the repeal of a State law which exempts certain of the citizens from conscription, and says it is useless to try to understand why these men should not be swept into the army, as well as others. He also expressed himself in favor of arming the slaves, and thinks the Legislature should pass some act to regulate the prices of necessaries of life. The exchange of prisoners which was broken off at Savannah a short time ago, is now progressing as rapidly as practicable in Charleston harbor. In consequence of this arrangement, the bombardment of the city of Charleston is temporarily suspended and will not be resumed until the exchange is concluded. The bombardment ceased on Sunday, the 4th, and the transferring of prisoners was soon after began. It is expected that two or three weeks will be required to complete the exchange.

Washington, Dec. 13.—The Secretary of the Interior in his report renews his recommendation for the imposition of a moderate tax upon miners and the product of the mines to be collected through the bureau of Internal Revenue.

Washington, Dec. 13.—James Speed, of Ky., was to-day confirmed by the Senate as Attorney General.

Washington, Dec. 13.—In the Senate yesterday, Davis, of Kentucky, according to previous notice, introduced a series of resolutions for the restoration of peace and the Union. The resolutions propose a Convention of all the States, as an agency by which these ends are to be attained. They then propose to refer to the consideration of such Convention, as a basis of a settlement, all difficulties among the States. Numerous amendments to the Constitution are arranged in eleven special paragraphs. The first paragraph proposes to form the States of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, into one State, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut into one, Maryland and the Eastern Shore of Virginia into one. The second provides that the President and Vice President shall be chosen alternately from the Free and Slave States, both never at the same time, to serve from the Free or Slave States for the term of four years, and any person who may have filled the office of President shall be forever ineligible to it. The third provides that all States, and in the month of January next before the expiration of the Presidential term, shall present names for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. The Free States for one office and the Slave States for the other as they may be respectively entitled to one or the other. Officers shall certify severally and to the two Houses of Congress and the Supreme Court, the names of the persons so chosen and for which office they have been chosen, and on the first Monday of February following, the Supreme Court in the presence of both Houses of Congress shall elect from the persons whose names have been certified for President, a candidate, and then a Vice President from the names which have been certified for that office. The Justices of the Supreme Court to be ineligible to any other office. The fourth provides that the President shall have power to remove from office the heads of the State, Treasury, Navy, War and Interior Departments, and the Attorney General, all Diplomatic Officers and Secretaries of Legation and all other civil officers, except those who hold office during good behavior whom he is required to nominate to the Senate and those he may suspend from their office. The fifth asserts the absolute right to the writ of habeas corpus in all places and under all circumstances, to trial by jury according to the mode prescribed by the Constitution. The freedom of religious opinions and worship, and of the press, and of speech, and exemption from arbitrary arrests, and the right to hold and bear arms in self defense. The sixth provides that each State shall have exclusive right and power to establish within its own borders all local and domestic institutions and make all laws and regulations concerning them. The seventh provides that private property shall not be taken for public use except to subserve some Constitutional operation of the Government, nor until the owners shall have received or secured from the Government according to law a full and fair compensation.

Headquarters Army of Potomac, Dec. 10.—Demonstrations were made yesterday toward Hatcher's Run, but they did not result in an engagement, and with the exception of a skirmish at the crossing on the Vaughn road and another in the afternoon, no fighting of consequence took place, the rebels falling back as our troops advanced. The object of the movement was evidently to keep the enemy from sending a force to intercept Warren, and it is believed it has been successful. Our loss was about one hundred and twenty-five killed and wounded. The command was ordered to return to camp to-day, and the troops are all back in their old camp. Nothing positive has been heard from Warren. It is rumored that a fight at Jarrett's Station on the Weldon Railroad, in which he gained a victory and was pursuing the enemy.

New York, Dec. 11.—The following resolutions were introduced in the North Carolina Senate:

Resolved, That five commissioners be elected to act with the commissioners from other States of the Confederacy as a medium for negotiating peace with the United States.

Resolved, That the other States be requested to create similar commissioners, which shall [illegible] as practicable and to co-operate with North Carolina in requesting President Davis, in the name of the sovereign States, that he tender to the United States an armistice, [illegible] through the medium of the commissioners.

Resolved, That whenever any of the States shall have responded by the appointment of commissioners, the commissioners shall communicate the proceedings officially to President Davis, and request his prompt action upon the project. In the lower House, a series of similar resolutions were offered.

Washington, Dec. 12.—A dispatch from City Point, Dec. 11th, says: The latest news obtained in the Richmond papers of the 10th is that on the 7th Sherman was at [illegible] 25 miles from Savannah, moving on that city. Sherman had marched his army on the 6th [illegible].

Cairo, Dec. 12.—New Orleans advices of the 5th say the pirate Semmes had arrived at Matamoras en route for Richmond.

The steamer Ocean, which sailed a month since for Matamoras and [illegible] Matagorda in distress, was seized by the [illegible] and sold.

Gen. Mejia is reported to be very severe to his soldiers. The punishment for any misdemeanor is fifty lashes or death.

Gen. Canby has sufficiently recovered to get along aided by servants.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—The Republican's Cairo special dispatch says: Considerable excitement exists at Memphis, (December 9th,) over a report that Beauregard was marching on Fort Pillow, with a very strong force and with heavy guns to be used in blockading the river.

The Charleston Mercury of the 8th says: On the morning of the 2d, Sherman's main body broke up camp at Louisville, Jefferson county, Georgia, and marched down the Central railroad. The Fourteenth and Twentieth Corps which formed his left wing, being in the advance, before nightfall the greater portion of the Yankee column passed through Millen in the direction of Savannah. We have no later news of his whereabouts.

The Mercury of the 8th says: Passengers who arrived on Sunday evening, report a fight going on some where near Pocotaligo. They passed that point, but nothing definite in regard to the progress or result of the reported action could be gathered.

Crinoline Destroyed.—On Saturday a lady passing along Front street, just above Morrison street, got her hoops and dress hitched to a box, and almost tore the delicate articles from her person. Scarcely a day passes without something of this kind happening, and yet no effort is made to clear the side walks. In no other city in the world would such trespasses upon the rights of pedestrians be permitted. As a journalist we have repeatedly called the attention of the authorities to this gross evil, and yet none seem to regard it as their business. The valuable dresses of ladies are permitted to be rent off their backs, as if they were so much waste rags, while children are often times forced into the streets, in danger of being run over by horses and wagons, for the accommodation of store keepers, who will not, because they are not forced, confine their business to its legitimate sphere. In our opinion it is much the duty of the Police to have the side walks cleared as it is their business to preserve order in any other way or place, and why they do not attend to it we cannot see.

Christian Commission Fair.—Remember that you can get a lunch and oysters to-day from 12½ o'clock until 2 P. M., at the Turn Verein Hall, and this evening you can see all the world there, be charmed by the Old Folks' Concerts, and entertained by Readings from Miss Lester, quite as great an array of attractions as any community can ask in one evening and consider themselves charitable besides. We don't see why everybody shouldn't go, would eat all they can digest at least, see and hear all they can besides, purchase some fancy fixings in addition and leave all the small change they can conveniently spare, as some assurance of their respect for the Portland Ladies and the good cause. The printers will be there at all events. They can be depended on.

Going Home.—The steamer yesterday carried a larger proportion of passengers than usual who may be considered "satisfied adventurers" to our coast, from the eastern slope, on the voyage homeward. They severally, so far as our knowledge extends, bear with them handsome little piles of the oro. One poor fellow parted company with his traveling companion from the mountains, as the steamer left the wharf, and is in town debarred from a visit to "the States" this time, having been busted a few nights since, in his efforts to double his pile, at the gambling table. He will purchase considerable experience before he gets home, at the rate he has started in.

Navigation Closed.—We learn from officers of the steamer Wilson G. Hunt that the navigation of the Columbia river was peremptorily closed yesterday. The steamer Oneonta did not arrive at the Cascades from the Dalles, and the passengers and heavy express packages were returned to this city. The messenger proceeded overland to the Dalles with the letter-bag. The state of the river is such from Portland to the Cascades, that the Hunt will not attempt a passage to-day. The river is closed—and it is a remarkable fact that it has closed ten days earlier than at any former season within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant.

Falling Rapidly.—According to the guide by which pilots judge of the amount of water on the bars of the Willamette, yesterday the depth on Swan Island bar was 11½ feet. The Columbia is receding at a rapid rate, having fallen at Vancouver for twenty-four hours prior to the departure of the Fannie Troup yesterday morning two feet, which has an effect to leave but little more than nine feet of water on the bars at the mouth of the Willamette. Capt. Connor informed us that on Sunday his steamship barely went out of the river on going at rapid speed. Yesterday there was large quantities of floating ice in the Columbia.

Another Attempt at Arson.—A fire was kindled among some inflammable substances in a hen coop, near the rear of the New York Hotel, late on Sunday night, but was fortunately, providentially discovered by the watchman in time to prevent its spread into a disastrous fire. The work was undoubtedly another attempt at arson, and as it may be repeated often, there should be a strict surveillance on the part of every owner and every occupant in the city, to prevent conflagration.

Treasure by the Steamship.—The steamship Sierra Nevada, which sailed for San Francisco yesterday carried $272,000 in treasure, shipped by parties as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co.	$225,000
Ladd & Tilton	32,000
Other parties	15,000
Total	$272,000

Benefit of Billy Sheppard.—As will be seen by reference to advertisement Mr. Sheppard is to take a benefit on Thursday evening, at Willamette Theatre. The evening is calculated, according to the bill, to be the best one of the season. The patronage of the ladies upon this occasion is handsomely solicited, and none need be restrained from fear of immodest remarks or acts, as the entertainment is of a high order, and perfectly chaste.

The Foot Race.—On Saturday last a foot race came off on the opposite side of the river, between Lewis and Stemers, won by the former. A fine champion belt was the prize. Lewis may be said now to have "cleaned" the best foot racers in the State, and if successful in his next race, which is to come off at the Dalles on Saturday, will certainly be the champion.

County Taxes.—Sheriff Stitzel having visited the different precincts of the county, for the collection of taxes, gives notice in another column that he may be found at the Court House in this city until the 20th day of January for the purpose of further collections. The law is "not now as it used to was" and persons owing will save trouble and property by being prompt.

A New Post-Office.—The ladies of the Christian Commission have concluded to have a post-office in connection with the Fair this evening, and they invite all who can spare the time, to write letters for them, which can be left at this office, handed in at the Hall, or left at the store of Messrs. Richards & McCracken. Who will write them?

Santa Claus About.—A big, fat, live turkey was handed in at the front door of a Printer's residence, in this city, last evening, by some invisible spirit, and the inscription attached to the fowl led to the inference that Santa Claus was about, it being addressed to the mistress of the table from that "venerable spy o' chimney tops."

Surgical.—Dr. Chapman, assisted by Dr. Watkins, performed a most important surgical operation in this city yesterday, in amputating a lady's foot, with about four inches of the limb. The case was one of necrosis of the bones of the foot and was a very bad one. The lady is doing very well.

New Volunteers.—The steamer Rival yesterday brought Capt. Lafollett's company of new volunteers to this city, en route to Fort Vancouver, from Camp Russell. They were 96 men and three officers, enlisted in Polk and Benton counties. The Fannie Troup carried them to their destination.

Recorder's Court.—The following persons were arraigned for drunks, rioting, etc., yesterday in Recorder's Court: E. Falkenstein, fined $15 and costs, paid; Geo. Workman, fined $25 and costs, paid. Samuel Pride, $10 and costs, in default committed to jail.

For Lancaster.—The steamer Enterprise Capt. Pease, will leave Canemah to-day for Lancaster and intermediate points, on the arrival of the Senator from Portland.

Marine Intelligence.

A Word to the Aged.—In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay, can only be supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged
DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, bilious colic, wind colic, spasms of the stomach, sick or nervous head-ache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints special to the feebler sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere. nov12d&w

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, Liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oc19d3m

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of Checking a Cough or "SLIGHT COLD" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" gives sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, elevated and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal. Being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder and urators of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate gland, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, &c.
